Phi Theta Kappa Pledge

“I [your name] do solemnly promise, on this seventh day of April, to uphold the standards of Phi Theta Kappa, and to make this object and aim foremost in my mind, and I do solemnly pledge allegiance to my fellow members and promise to aid them in all worthy endeavors.”

Phi Theta Kappa's Mission Statement

The purpose of Phi Theta Kappa shall be to recognize and encourage scholarship among two-year college students.

To achieve this purpose, Phi Theta Kappa shall provide opportunity for the development of leadership and service, for an intellectual climate for exchange of ideas and ideals, for lively fellowship for scholars, and for stimulation of interest in continuing academic excellence.

Guest Speaker Bio

Alison Whitmire

President, Learning in Action

Alison Whitmire is the president of Learning in Action, a company committed to revealing derailing blind spots, and creating awareness resulting in breakthroughs. She is an authority in Emotional and Relational Intelligence, which focuses on our innate capacity to be in relationship with others, even in times of conflict, and how we can develop that capacity through conscious awareness and intention.

Alison is a Professional Certified Coach, a Master Emotional Quotient Practitioner, and a Certified Narrative Coach. She has thousands of hours of experience coaching CEOs and business owners. She is certified by the Yoga Alliance U.S. as a Registered Yoga Teacher and is currently enrolled in a Mindfulness Meditation Teacher training program. Alison is also a TEDx speaker and a 3-time TEDx Conference organizer.

Prior to her current position, Alison was a Chair for 8 years at Vistage International, one of the world's largest CEO membership organizations. Before that, she worked at a series of Fortune 500 companies, running business units inside those companies. In the early years of her career, Alison practiced as a CPA with Ernst and Young. She has an MBA from the University of Chicago and BBAs in Accounting and Finance from Texas Tech University.
