Inclement Weather, Class Cancellation, Campus Closing

A decision to close the campus or to cancel classes because of inclement weather or other adverse conditions will be made as early as possible. Students should watch and listen for news broadcasts. Weather information is available on www.osuokc.edu/weather. Students are encouraged to join social media networks at www.facebook.com/osuokc and www.twitter.com/osuokc.

A decision to close the campus includes offices across the campus. If only classes are cancelled, campus offices remain open. Instructions and further information for these contingencies have been provided for faculty and staff employees through the campus Emergency Preparedness Plan.

Tornado and Severe Windstorms

When a tornado is confirmed close to the OSU-Oklahoma City campus, college officials and campus Security will notify each building on campus that all persons should seek immediate cover in a shelter area. The shelter locations for each building are identified by yellow signs labeled "Emergency Storm Shelter." Most shelters are located on the lowest level of each building and usually inside restrooms, stairwells and northeast classrooms. When conditions are safe to return to normal operations, campus officials and security will issue "all clear" notices to shelter locations.

Energy Education

Oklahoma State University in Stillwater has contracted with Energy Education, Inc. (EEI) to develop an energy education program that will become self-sustained on each of the campuses. OSU-Oklahoma City has built an awareness of conservation to have a more prosperous and sustainable future through the wise use of energy. Its policy and guidelines cover general information and guidelines for heating, air conditioning, water usage and lighting with emphasis on usage during unoccupied times.

Safety and Maintenance

Special Event Coordination for Parking and Building/Classroom Access

If your event will require visitors to park on campus notify the Office of Safety and Security at (405) 945-3253 or email security@osuokc.edu to arrange to have Temporary Parking Passes issued. Without these passes, visitors may be cited for illegal parking. If buses or other large vehicles will be parking on campus, we may need to coordinate an area where they will have plenty of room and will be less likely to cause traffic/parking problems.

If your event requires building or classroom access on weekends, evenings or after hours, you will need to make arrangements with Security at (405) 945-3253 or email security@osuokc.edu. Occupants of the meeting or class will be questioned by a Security Officer if prior arrangements have not been made.

Parking and Traffic Regulations

The Board of Regents for Oklahoma State University/A&M Colleges, the governing board, has appointed necessary officers for the purpose of protecting personnel and property at Oklahoma State University-Oklahoma City. These officers are assigned to the Office of Safety and Security, which has the responsibility and authority for the administration and enforcement of the university's parking and traffic regulations.

Any student, eligible faculty, adjunct or staff member of the university who operates a motor vehicle on the campus is required to obtain a university hangtag and display it on his/her vehicle mirror before parking the vehicle on university property. Student registration hangtags are issued by Business Services, located on the second floor of the Administration Building. Copies of the OSU-Oklahoma City Parking and Traffic Regulations are available at Business Services, or in the Office of Safety and Security, Business Technologies Building, Room 100. Summary of the Jeanne Clery Act

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act is the landmark federal law, originally known as the Campus Security Act, which requires colleges and universities across the United States to disclose information about crime on and around their campuses.

Because the law is tied to participation in federal student financial aid programs it applies to most institutions of higher education both public and private. It is enforced by the U.S. Department of Education.

The "Clery Act" is named in memory of 19-year old Lehigh University freshman Jeanne Ann Clery who was raped and murdered while asleep in her residence hall room on April 5, 1986.

The law was amended in 1992 to add a requirement that schools afford the victims of campus sexual assault certain basic rights, and was amended again in 1998 to expand the reporting requirements. The 1998 amendments also formally named the law in memory of Jeanne Clery. The law was amended in 2003 to require schools beginning in 2003 to notify the campus community about where public "Megan's Law" information about registered sex offenders on campus could be obtained.

For more information about the Jeanne Clery Act, visit the Security on Campus, Inc. at www.securityoncampus.org.

Drugs and Alcohol

OSU-Oklahoma City does not tolerate illicit drug use and/or alcohol abuse on campus or in connection with university functions by any person regardless of age. State law regulates the possession, use and/or sale of alcoholic beverages and illegal drugs. OSU has articulated a policy on alcohol and drug use on campus. This and other related policies are in the Oklahoma State University-Oklahoma City Student Rights and Responsibilities Governing Student Behavior available in the Office of Student Life or on the website at www.osuokc.edu/rights.

Weapons, Firearms, Ammunition, Fireworks, Explosives and Dangerous Chemicals

The possession of weapons on campus is regulated by state law; all weapons are prohibited on any college or university campus by state law. This is to include, but not limited to, the possession or use of weapons, firearms, ammunition, fireworks, explosives and dangerous chemicals on campus, in OSU-Oklahoma City vehicles, or on OSU-Oklahoma City sponsored trips.

Exceptions to this policy are police and peace officers employed by OSU-Oklahoma City and those who have been called to assist or to perform law enforcement duties on campus as well as police and peace officers in their official on-duty capacities and in the performance of their duties. Collegiate Officer Program students during supervised-skills training are exempt.

Persons who are licensed to carry concealed handguns pursuant to the Oklahoma Self Defense Act are authorized by that Act to enter the grounds of OSU-Oklahoma City with such handguns only if the handguns are concealed and stored in the licensee's motor vehicle at all times. No handgun may be removed from such concealed storage while the vehicle is on OSU-Oklahoma City property.
