MEMORANDUM

Date: July 2011
To: OSU-Oklahoma City Faculty and Staff
From: Natalie Shirley, President, Oklahoma State University-Oklahoma City
Subject: Committee Handbook

Attached you will find the latest revised copy of committee assignments for faculty and staff. Please look the handbook over and note which committees you are assigned to and make a diligent effort to attend the meetings. Committees should meet as soon as possible.

Chairpersons need to note the following information and follow these guidelines:

- Review purpose of the committee with members
- Establish committee objectives for the academic year
- Set meeting schedule to accomplish objectives
- Identify recorder for minutes of the meeting
- Minutes should be forwarded to the Office of the Associate Vice President of Academic Affairs.
- The committee chairs will be notified prior to fall and spring break and will be reminded to:
 - Meet at least one semester
 - Schedule a meeting if they haven't met yet
 - Ask for minutes
- Complete an Activity Report at the end of fall and spring semesters (see Committee Activity Report) and submit to the office of the Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs.
- If any changes need to be made to the Committee Handbook, the appropriate Vice President must approve and submit the change to the President's Office.

These procedures must be followed in order to provide important information to North Central for the review process. Your cooperation in this matter is greatly appreciated.

FOREWORD

As we begin a new academic year at OSU-Oklahoma City, it is time to revisit our official college assignments. It is absolutely essential that our assigned committees be aligned properly to ensure that issues, policies and procedures are conducted in a timely and professional manner.

Oklahoma State University-Oklahoma City relies on employee skills and expertise to provide quality services to the populations that are served. I am convinced that the benefits resulting from your participation in the committee process will pay dividends to you individually and OSU-Oklahoma City. It is required that all committee chairpersons submit an annual report stating the yearly committee activity throughout the year. The OSU-Oklahoma City Vice Presidents' Council will be responsible for recommending and selecting committee chairs.

Our accrediting agencies require that committees provide records that reflect the activities conducted throughout the year. As we strive to improve our services, your commitment to serve on committees allows OSU-Oklahoma City to continue to improve.

I encourage each of you to accept committee assignments and to seek out committees that will allow you to share your expertise. Your participation on committees will ensure that you are involved in the development of OSU-Oklahoma City. All committees are important and give each of us an opportunity to evaluate the needs of the institution.

Thank you.

Natalie Shirley, President
Oklahoma State University-Oklahoma City
