

Cellular Telephone use in the OSU-Oklahoma City Library

- The OSU-Oklahoma City Library is a place for quiet research, consultation and study. Appropriate conduct is expected from all that use the facilities.

Owners of cellular telephones will be expected to turn telephone ringers off, or turn them down to their lowest level while in the Library. If cell phone use is required, users will be expected to move to a location away from fellow students so conversations will not disturb others. Loud conversation is both unnecessary and unacceptable. Extensive cell phone conversation while in the library is discouraged.

Please do not use cell phones in the Library Network area at any time.

Failure to comply with this policy will result in cellular telephones being banned altogether in the Library.
