

OSU-Oklahoma City Self-Study 2010

Table of Contents

Introduction	1
Higher Education in Oklahoma.....	1
Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education.....	1
Board of Regents for the Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges.....	2
Overview of the University.....	2
History of Accreditation at OSU-Oklahoma City.....	4
Significant Developments since the Last Report: 2000-2010.....	5
Progress Report on 2000 Concerns.....	13
The OSU-Oklahoma City Self-Study Process.....	29
Organization of the Self-Study.....	31
Criterion One – Mission and Integrity	33
The organization operates with integrity to ensure the fulfillment of its mission through structures and processes that involve the board, administration, faculty, staff, and students.
Mission.....	34
Vision.....	34
Function.....	34
Philosophy.....	35
OSU-Oklahoma City Core values.....	35
Core Component 1a: The organization’s mission documents are clear and articulate publicly the organization’s commitments.....	37
The board has adopted statements of mission, vision, values, goals, and organizational priorities clearly and broadly define OSU-Oklahoma City’s mission.	37
The mission, vision, values, and goals documents define the varied internal and external constituencies the organization intends to serve.	39

The mission documents include a strong commitment to high academic standards that sustains and advances excellence in higher learning.39

The mission documents state goals for the learning to be achieved by its students.40

The institution regularly evaluates and, when appropriate, revises the mission documents.40

The institution makes the mission documents available to the public, particularly to prospective and enrolled students.41

Core Component 1b: In its mission documents, the organization recognizes the diversity of its learners, other constituencies, and the greater society it serves.41

In its mission documents, the organization addresses diversity within the community values and common purposes it considers fundamental to its mission.42

The mission documents present the organization’s function in a multicultural society.43

The mission documents affirm the organization’s commitment to honor the dignity and worth of individuals.43

The organization’s required codes of belief or expected behaviors are congruent with its mission.44

The mission documents provide a basis for the organization’s basic strategies to address diversity.45

Core Component 1c: Understanding of and support for the mission pervades the organization.46

The board, administration, faculty, staff, and students understand and support the organization’s mission....46

The organization’s strategic decisions are mission-driven.46

The organization’s planning and budgeting priorities flow from and support the mission.46

The goals of the administrative and academic subunits of the organization are congruent with the organization’s mission.....47

The organization’s internal constituencies articulate the mission in a consistent manner.47

Core Component 1d: The organization’s governance and administrative structures promote effective leadership and support collaborative processes that enable the organization to fulfill its mission.....48

The board enables the organization’s chief administrative personnel to exercise effective leadership.....48

Institutional Governing Boards.48

Institutional Advisory Boards.49

People within the governance and administrative structures are committed to the mission and appropriately qualified to carry out their defined responsibilities.....50

Faculty and other academic leaders share responsibility for the coherence of the curriculum and the integrity of academic processes.....51

- Assessment of Student Learning Committee51
- The Assessment Academy Group.....51
- Academic Appeals Committee52
- Faculty Honors Committee53
- Developmental Studies Department.....53

Effective communication facilitates governance processes and activities.53

- Administration53
- Faculty Senate.....53
- Staff Council54
- Student Government Association.....54
- AT/IT Council.....55

The organization evaluates its structures and processes regularly and strengthens them as needed.56

- Effectiveness.....56
- Course Evaluations.....56

Core Component 1e: The organization upholds and protects its integrity.....57

- Congruence exists between what the organization’s mission documents say the organization is about and what it actually does.....57
- OSU-Oklahoma City knows and abides by relevant laws and regulations.57
- The institution acts fairly with internal and external constituencies.58
- OSU-Oklahoma City behaves with integrity in its operations.60
- OSU-Oklahoma City presents itself accurately and honestly to the public.60
- The organization documents timely response to complaints and grievance, particularly those of students.61

Strengths, Challenges and Recommendations62

Criterion 2 - Preparing for the Future

65

The organization's allocation of resources and its processes for evaluation and planning demonstrate its capacity to fulfill its mission, improve the quality of its education, and respond to future challenges and opportunities.

Core Component 2a: The organization realistically prepares for a future shaped by multiple societal and economic trends.	66
The organization's planning documents reflect a sound understanding of the organization's current capacity.	66
The organization's planning documents demonstrate that attention is being paid to emerging factors such as technology, demographic shifts, and globalization.	66
The organization's planning documents show careful attention to the organization's function in a multicultural society.	69
The organization's planning processes include effective environmental scanning.....	70
International Involvement.....	71
The organizational environment is supportive of innovation and change.	71
The organization incorporates in its planning those aspects of its history and heritage that it wishes to preserve and continue.	72
Technical Programs.....	72
Extension and Outreach.....	72
The organization clearly identifies authority for decision making about organizational goals.....	72
 Core Component 2b: The organization's resource base supports its educational programs and its plans for maintaining and strengthening their quality in the future.	73
Human Resources.....	73
Teaching Load and Office Hours.....	74
Academic Affairs.....	75
Academic Divisions.....	75
Student Services.....	92
Associate Vice President.....	92
Enrollment Management.....	92
Deaf Student Services.....	93
Student Life.....	93
Financial Aid.....	94

Registrar Services95

Testing and Assessment.....95

TRIO (Student Support Services, Educational Talent Search and Upward Bound).....96

Strengths, Challenges and Recommendations97

Professional Faculty/Staff Development.....98

 OSU-Oklahoma City Faculty/Staff Training Opportunities98

 OSU-Stillwater Training Opportunities100

 Education Assistance Policy.....100

Business and Industry Training and Development.....101

 Technology Education Center101

 Center for Safety and Emergency Preparedness101

Student Support Services-Academic Affairs102

 The Learning Center102

 The Library.....103

Finance and Operations104

 Business Services104

 Student Center Services104

 Bookstore104

 Building Construction/Maintenance104

 Buildings104

 Remodeled Facilities.....104

 Parking Accommodations.....106

 Fiscal Resources107

Core Component 2c: The organization’s ongoing evaluation and assessment processes provide reliable evidence of institutional effectiveness that clearly informs strategies for continuous improvement...... 110

The organization demonstrates that its evaluation processes provide evidence that its performance meets its stated expectations for institutional effectiveness.110

The organization maintains effective systems for collecting, analyzing, and using organizational information.112

Appropriate data and feedback loops are available and used throughout the organization to support continuous improvement.115

Periodic reviews of academic and administrative subunits contribute to improvement of the organization...117

The organization provides adequate support for its evaluation and assessment processes.118

Core Component 2d: All levels of planning align with the organization’s mission, thereby enhancing its capacity to fulfill that mission.118

Coordinated planning processes center on mission documents that define vision, values, goals, and strategic priorities for the organization.....118

Planning processes link with budgeting processes.119

Implementation of the organization’s planning is in its operations.119

Long-range strategic planning processes allow for reprioritization of goals when necessary because of changing environments.121

Planning documents give evidence of the organization’s awareness of the relationships among educational quality, student learning, and the diverse, complex, global, and technological world in which the organization and its students exist.121

Planning processes involve internal and, where appropriate, external constituents.121

Strengths, Challenges and Recommendations122

Criterion 3: Student Learning and Effective Teaching 125

The organization’s goals for student learning outcomes are clearly stated for each educational program and make effective assessment possible.

Core Component 3a: The organization clearly differentiates its learning goals for undergraduate, graduate, and post-baccalaureate programs by identifying the expected learning outcomes for each......125

Assessment of student learning provides evidence at multiple levels: course, program and institutional.....126

Assessment of student learning includes multiple direct and indirect measures of student learning127

Results obtained through assessment of student learning are available to appropriate constituencies, including students themselves.132

The organization integrates into its assessment of student learning the data reported for purposes of external accountability (e.g. graduation rates, passage rates on licensing exams, transfer rates).....132

The organization’s assessment of student learning extends to all educational offerings, including credit and non-credit certificate programs.134

Faculty are involved in defining expected student learning outcomes and creating the strategies to determine whether those outcomes are achieved.135

Faculty and administrators routinely review the effectiveness of the organization’s programs to assess student learning.136

Core Component 3b: The organization values and supports effective teaching.....137

 Qualified faculty determine curricular content and strategies for instruction.....137

 Qualified Faculty.....137

 Curricular Content138

 Strategies for Instruction140

 The organization supports professional development designed to facilitate teaching suited to varied learning environments.142

 The organization evaluates teaching and recognizes effective teaching.143

 Evaluation of Effective Teaching143

 Recognition of Effective Teaching144

 The organization provides services to support pedagogies.144

 The organization demonstrates openness to innovative practices that enhance learning.146

 The organization supports faculty in keeping abreast of the research on teaching and learning, and of technological advances that can positively affect student learning and the delivery of instruction.147

 Faculty members actively participate in professional organizations relevant to the disciplines they teach.....149

Core Component 3c: The Organization Creates Effective Learning Environments.150

 Assessment results inform improvements in curriculum, pedagogy, instructional resources, and student services.....150

 Example: Learning Environment and Assessment in Nursing, A.A.S.....151

 Curriculum Evaluation.....152

 Retention Activities152

 The organization provides an environment that supports all learners and respects the diversity they bring.153

 Advising systems focus on student learning, including the mastery of skills required for academic success.154

Student development programs support learning throughout the student’s experience regardless of the location of the student.155

The Learning Center (TLC).....155

OSU-Oklahoma City’s Library156

The organization employs, when appropriate, new technologies that enhance effective learning environments for students.156

Core Component 3d: The organization’s learning resources support student learning and effective teaching.160

The organization ensures access to the resources necessary to support learning and teaching.160

The organization evaluates the use of its learning resources to enhance student learning and effective teaching.161

The organization regularly assesses the effectiveness of its learning resources to support learning and teaching.... 162

The organization supports students, staff, and faculty in using technology effectively.....164

The organization provides effective staffing and support for its learning resources.164

The organization’s systems and structures enable partnerships and innovations that enhance student learning and strengthen teaching effectiveness.164

Budgeting priorities reflect that improvement in teaching and learning is a core value of the organization...166

Strengths, Challenges, and Recommendations169

Criterion 4: Acquisition, Discovery, and Application of Knowledge 171

The organization promotes a life of learning for its faculty, administration, staff, and students by fostering and supporting inquiry, creativity, practice, and social responsibility in ways consistent with its mission.

Core Component 4a: The organization demonstrates, through the actions of its board, administrators, students, faculty, and staff, that it values a life of learning.171

The organization’s planning and pattern of financial allocation demonstrate that it values and promotes a life of learning for its students, faculty, and staff. 172

The board has approved and disseminated statements supporting freedom of inquiry for the organization’s students, faculty, and staff, and honors those statements in its practices.....173

The organization supports professional development opportunities and makes them available to all of its administrators, faculty, and staff.....174

The organization provides a strong support for life-long learning opportunities for students, faculty, staff and administrators through wellness education.176

The organization publicly acknowledges the achievements of students and faculty in acquiring, discovering, and applying knowledge.176

Core Component 4b: The organization demonstrates that acquisition of a breadth of knowledge and skills and the exercise of intellectual inquiry are integral to its educational programs.	178
OSU-Oklahoma City integrates general education into all of its undergraduate degree programs through curricular and experiential offerings intentionally created to develop the attitudes and skills requisite for a life of learning in a diverse society.	178
OSU-Oklahoma City regularly reviews the relationship between its mission and values and the effectiveness of its general education.	180
OSU-Oklahoma City assesses how effectively its programs establish a knowledge base on which students develop depth of expertise.	184
OSU-Oklahoma City demonstrates the linkages between curricular and co-curricular activities that support inquiry, practice, creativity, and social responsibility.	189
Learning outcomes demonstrate that graduates have achieved breadth of knowledge and skills and the capacity to exercise intellectual inquiry.	189
Core Component 4c: The organization assesses the usefulness of its curricula to students who will live and work in a global, diverse, and technological society.	190
Regular academic program reviews include attention to currency and relevancy of courses and programs... ..	190
Program Outcomes	191
Learning outcomes document that graduates have gained the skills and knowledge they need to function in diverse local, national, and global societies.	192
Curricular evaluation involves alumni, employers, and other external constituents who understand the relationships among the course of study, the currency of the curriculum, and the utility of the knowledge and skills gained.	193
Advisory Board	193
The organization provides curricular and co-curricular opportunities that promote social responsibility.	193
Core Component 4d: The organization provides support to ensure that faculty, students, and staff acquire, discover, and apply knowledge responsibly.	194
The institution dedicates resources to technologies and the training of faculty in the use of those technologies that promote student ethical practices in their course work.	194
The institution has certain non-technological procedures in place to ensure the security of exams and other confidential information from students.	195
The institution has established written policies and procedures that both enforce ethical academic student conduct and protect students from abuse by faculty.	196
The institution provides some training or guidelines for students in its many academic internship programs, practicums, clinical assignments, and service learning programs.	196
The institution provides written guidelines and some opportunities for general training in ethical behavior.	197
The institution's Services to Students with Disabilities area maintains strict confidentiality of student disability information.	198
Strengths, Challenges, and Recommendations	199

Criterion 5: Engagement and Service

201

As called for by its mission, the organization identifies its constituencies and serves them in ways both value.

Core Component 5a: The organization learns from the constituencies it services and analyzes its capacity to serve their needs and expectations......201

The organization’s commitments are shaped by its mission and its capacity to support those commitments.....201

The organization practices periodic environmental scanning to understand the changing needs of its constituencies and their communities.....202

The organization demonstrates attention to the diversity of the constituencies it serves.202

The organization’s outreach programs respond to identified community needs.203

In responding to external constituencies, the organization is well-served by programs such as continuing education, outreach and customized training.....204

Core Component 5b: The organization has the capacity and the commitment to engage with its identified constituencies and communities.204

Community Outreach.....205

 Community Engagement.....205

 Service Learning205

 Volunteerism206

 Hispanic Student Outreach207

 Student Center and Campus Events207

 Student Services207

 Family Resource Center207

 TRIO Programs(Student Support Services, Upward Bound And Educational Talent Search)208

Academics208

 Practicums, Internships, and Clinical Components209

 Online Courses/Technical Support210

Special Program Highlights210

 Bachelor of Technology Degree in Emergency Responder Administration210

 Dietetic Technician Associate in Applied Science (A.A.S.)211

 Technical Spanish Translation/Interpretation Associate in Applied Science (A.A.S.).....211

 Horticulture Degree Programs and Courses211

Core Component 5c: The organization demonstrates its responsiveness to those constituencies that depend on it for service.212

- Collaborative ventures exist with other higher learning organizations and education sectors (e.g. K-12 partnerships, articulation arrangements, 2+2 programs).....212
 - Cooperative Agreements212
 - Concurrently Enrolled High School Students213
 - Elementary School Ties213
 - TRIO Programs (Educational Talent Search and Upward Bound)214
 - Summer Academies216
- The organization’s transfer policies and practices create an environment supportive of the mobility of learners.... 216
- Community leaders testify to the usefulness of the organization’s programs of engagement.217
 - APAC Feedback.....218
 - Crime Victim Survivor Services218
 - Power Transmission Distribution Technology218
- Community Services.....219
 - Service Learning.....219
- The organization’s programs of engagement give evidence of building effective bridges among diverse communities.219
- The organization participates in partnerships focused on shared educational, economic, and social goals.222
 - Agriculture Technologies Division Activities.....222
 - Family Health and Safety Day222
 - Center for Safety Education and Preparedness.....223
 - Collar Institute for Child Passenger Safety.....223
 - Defensive Driving223
 - Business Connections223
 - Certified Nurse Aide Program224

Core Component 5d: Internal and external constituencies value the services the organization provides......225

- The organization’s evaluation of services involves the constituencies served.....225
- Service programs and student, faculty, and staff volunteer activities are well-received by the communities served.....226
 - Service Learning Programs.....226
 - Volunteer Activities227

The organization’s economic and workforce development activities are sought after and valued by civic and business leaders.228

External constituents participate in the organization’s activities and co-curricular programs open to the public.230

The organization’s facilities are available to and are used by the community.230

 External and Internal Customer Use230

 Community Services and Events232

The organization provides programs to meet the continuing education needs of licensed professionals in its community.234

Strengths, Challenges, and Recommendation236

Summary and Request for Continued Accreditation 239

OSU-Oklahoma City is a Future-Oriented Organization240

OSU-Oklahoma City is a Learning-Focused College.....241

OSU-Oklahoma City is a Connected Institution241

OSU-Oklahoma City is a Distinctive School of Higher Learning.....242

Conclusion242

Acronyms/Glossary 243

Appendices

- Appendix A. Institutional Snapshot
- Appendix B. Agency Strategic Plan
- Appendix C. Administration
- Appendix D. Executive Summary of 2008 Assessment Report
- Appendix E. Self-Study Timeline
- Appendix F. Federal Compliance Program