Educational TALENT Search

The purpose of Talent Search is to identify qualified individuals with potential for postsecondary education and to aid and encourage them to complete secondary school and to begin a postsecondary educational program.

How Talent Search Helps:
- Identifies and assists individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds with the potential to succeed in higher education.
- Provides academic, career, and financial counseling to its participants and encourages them to graduate high school and continue on to the postsecondary school of their choice.
- Serves high school dropouts, young adults, and veterans by encouraging them to re-enter school and complete their education.

During the School Year

Educational Talent Search counselors will visit middle schools and high schools to share with students information that helps them prepare for college or technology center admission.

Who qualifies for the program?
- Middle school students at least 11 years old who complete five years of elementary education
- High school students
- Military Veterans of ANY AGE
- Adults up to age 27

Does it cost anything?
- No, all program services are free to qualified applicants!
