Service Learning Reflection Outline

Reflection is the final requirement for completing service learning.

Writing about your experiences for your instructor and/or the service learning office, creates meaning from service. The reflection you produce is how your instructor will be able to see what learning has occurred during your service.

If your instructor has given you a specific reflection guide to use, please use that guide. If your instructor does not give you a specific guide, please use the guide below to discuss your experience in an essay of 3-5 pages.

Service Learning Reflection Guide

- Your name
- Service site
- What was the community need that your service helped meet?
- How did your service help meet that goal?
- What were the best things you learned/did during your service?
- What were the challenges you had to meet during your service? How did you meet them?
- What did you learn about your value to your community?
- Did the service you performed help or change anything in you?
- If your thinking/opinion of community service changed during the semester, how?
- What was the competency or skill standard you selected as your goal for learning?
- Will you continue to serve in the community? How?